The giant book which contained this information was brought to me by Donna Timpner Vuichard, (she is always getting me in trouble, just kidding, Donna.) It had laid in the court house basement and had a moldy smell which permeated the whole house for a few days.

It had to be propped on a chair as it was to big to stand on the desk. This meant that the bottom lines had to be read by leaning over and down to read the sometimes pale writing. If one multiplies names times columns and pages it comes to over 4,900 names. Of course many of the names are repeated numerous times.

It was both interesting and informative doing this book. Now that it's done, perhaps I can read it.

It is my wish that you, the reader, will enjoy this work and maybe find it helpful in your research.

CLERK'S DOCKET
Perry County, Ills., 1860-1863

(Since the numbers for the individual actions are confusing, page numbers will be the reference. The even numbered pages are usually for names and actions, odd pages for notes. PSI =People of State of Illinois. Pet = petition. Part=partition. Most of the attorney's names are repeated dozens of times, they will by used only once since this work is mainly to bring the names out in history. Some listings are juries. The jurors names are so repetitive that not every jury is listed. Many cases are postponed and will appear more than once.)
Attorneys: A. P. Corder, Duff, Hammack, Ha??? Parrish, Wall, Mulkey, McKee & Murphy, Jenkins & Ward, Crawford, P. E. Hosmer, N. E. Weeks, Elstun, Eason, Youngman & Heoge
